

Pompous Designation

of choreographed motions with a rifle called Manual of Arms. I believe: as vague presently as when I pretended soldier. Once in Korea, a lecturing, dolt-ish officer wants a trooper to demonstrate. Looks at me, who has forgotten the whole damn thing. So, exposure as null fraud looms when I'm only there to dawdle and daydream. He chooses another, one who looks a soldier, and knows his soldier stuff. I'm told just about everybody suffers nightmares of such vulnerability.
